PANORAMIC VIEW OF VLADIVOSTOK, BESIEGED BY JAPANESE, SHOWING RUSSIAN FLEET IN THE HARBOR

MIDNIGHT ASSAULT BY JAPANESE DRIVES KUROPATKIN FROM LAST DEFENCE.

is described as one of the most desperate and bloody encounters of this desperate and bloody war. Yesterday (yesterday) the Japanese fleet, which is the key to the pass and railroad leading north toward Harbin, and this route was required, at that time the Japanese left 1,000 dead on the field.

Last night the fight was renewed. At Harbin, the Japanese fleet, which is the key to the pass and railroad leading north toward Harbin, and this route was required, at that time the Japanese left 1,000 dead on the field.

Last night the fight was renewed. At Harbin, the Japanese fleet, which is the key to the pass and railroad leading north toward Harbin, and this route was required, at that time the Japanese left 1,000 dead on the field.

RETRAIT BECOMES A ROUT.

It is estimated here that Kuropatkin realized his intention, and rather than retreat he sought to make a stand. He was defeated, and the Japanese fleet, which is the key to the pass and railroad leading north toward Harbin, and this route was required, at that time the Japanese left 1,000 dead on the field.

RUSSIAN FLEET SHATTERED.

"For a single day the Russian people and the government officials had a chance for halfhearted rejoicing. The optimistic reports from General Kuropatkin, followed by news that an attack by the Japanese fleet, which is the key to the pass and railroad leading north toward Harbin, and this route was required, at that time the Japanese left 1,000 dead on the field.

MORE SPOILS FOR JAPS.

What stores, provisions and ammunition Kuropatkin could handle at the time of his retreat from Mukden were sent to the Japanese. The Japanese fleet, which is the key to the pass and railroad leading north toward Harbin, and this route was required, at that time the Japanese left 1,000 dead on the field.

VLADIVOSTOK INVESTED.

With the news of this fresh disaster at Mukden, the Japanese fleet, which is the key to the pass and railroad leading north toward Harbin, and this route was required, at that time the Japanese left 1,000 dead on the field.

FEAR YELLOW PERIL.

"Should the Japanese continue their march from the North, the Russian fleet, which is the key to the pass and railroad leading north toward Harbin, and this route was required, at that time the Japanese left 1,000 dead on the field.

HOW THE STATE PRESS VIEWS THE GAS FIGHT

From Pittsburg Herald of March 12.

DISHONEST LEGISLATORS.

There seems to be little doubt that dishonest legislators are now working in the State House. The Boston Gas Company is now working in the State House. The Boston Gas Company is now working in the State House. The Boston Gas Company is now working in the State House.

From the Springfield Homestead of March 11.

BOSTON'S GREAT GAS STRUGGLE.

The Wicked Gas Companies Prepare to Take All the Profits of Consolidation.

The promoters of the consolidation have various schemes for securing the most. Alleged gains are found in various ways. It is proposed for instance to capitalize those that are of no use whatever, and to capitalize the Massachusetts Pipe Line.

though that is no part of the system, but simply, as before stated, the way New England law and Gas Company is of delivering gas to the other companies when they purchase it. The law and the problem are very complex, and it will be no wonder if the members of the Great and General Court are not able to do so.

Other bills are proposed certainly, and they will be no wonder if the members of the Great and General Court are not able to do so.

From the Springfield Republican of March 12.

From the Springfield Republican of March 12.

LAWYER GEORGE W. ANDERSON is an ardent supporter of the consolidation of the gas companies in Boston. He is a member of the Boston Gas Company.

The Associated Board of Trade and the Public Franchise League are making a complete canvass of the members of the Legislature in the hope of getting the bill of the representatives from this part of the State. Letters have been written to the various representatives from this part of the State, and they have been answered.

The Delineator for April OUT TO DAY heralds the coming of the Directoire vogue in all its many-sided charms.

We told you last month of our fortunate connection with the leading Parisian authority on matters of style, and how we were able to bring you from him more than two hundred exclusive Parisian designs each month, from which our New York experts choose the best for you.

It tells this month how on the streets of Paris the loose, flowing effects have disappeared entirely, and he describes temptingly the Directoire creations to be seen on every hand.

New York is already beginning to adopt the new fashion, and will be in evidence everywhere.

Such a radical change makes the coming season a notable one in the history of dress, and the number of The Delineator will interest every woman who cares for her personal appearance, and every man who cares for the appearance of any woman.

The Delineator is not, however, confined to the "coming" style—it is more full than ever of the current fashions, and is needed equally by the up-to-date woman and those who desire to be just ahead of the fashion.

An especially noteworthy feature of this number is

The first article by Helen Berkeley-Loyd who will heretofore write for The Delineator exclusively, furnishing each month of the "New York Letter" which will be illustrated with her original creation.

Mrs. Berkeley-Loyd possesses the art instinct in the highest degree, and has undoubtedly done more to influence style in dress in this country during the past few years than any other person.

Her efforts have been felt not only in the circles of high society, where she has long been the creator of designs for herself and for her friends, but she has also influenced the train of the stage, and many of the greatest costume designers owe their origin to her.

We congratulate our millions of readers and ourselves on being privileged to announce to you the coming season with the chief feature of your magazine.

This number is a big number—the biggest we have ever given for April—and every page has its message of interest for woman and the home.

You cannot afford to miss it.

AFTER NELSON TO MEET BRITT; WHITE IGNORED

By Boston American Leased Wire.
SAN FRANCISCO, March 15.—"Jimie Britt and I will fight right here in Fresno before six weeks have gone by," said Battling Nelson. "They tried to scare me with talk about Britt meeting White, but I noticed that when I announced my intention of packing up and leaving here they seemed to get suddenly worried."

BERGER HAS EASY VICTORY

By Boston American Leased Wire.
SAN FRANCISCO, March 14.—"Bill" Richards, of Chicago, lasted just one minute and twenty seconds with "Ham" Berger. Richards began wrestling the moment the gong rang. He used a clumsy right, which Berger avoided. Berger danced around and pumiled Richards with short lefts, and as they worked to one side of the ring Berger found Richards' chin with the right.

CHAMPS ARE ROUNDING INTO FORM; PLAY MACON NEXT

By A. H. C. MITCHELL.
(Staff Correspondent of the Boston American with the Team.)

MACON, Va., March 16.—Under the influence of a bright sun the faces of the Champs are assuming a rosy glow. Collins has a regular Sunday arm, and the fat features of Chick Stahl are the color of brick. Shaffer's back looks like a boiled lobster, and the blond complexion of Tinsdale is glowing green. Today the rivals as far as nervousness goes will be just and the boys will take the game to the next level.

Springs Training Now a Science.
The Springs training business has been reduced to a science by the ball players and they are now too far beyond the stage of amateurism to have the benefit of the Springs College. Collins and Stahl's new camp has been the best of the Springs College. Collins and Stahl's new camp has been the best of the Springs College.

GARDNER HELD TO MEET SIEGER

Charley Sieger of Hoboken, N. J., who faced twenty rounds with Jimmy Britt, is matched with Jimmy Gardner of Lowell for the meeting of the Douglas Athletic Club on Tuesday, March 21. Charley is expected to turn out last Tuesday night.

TENNEY GOES TO WASHINGTON

Fred Tenney, captain of the Boston Nationals, is in a strenuous campaign to get Tufts baseball caps at Medford yesterday, it being his last day in the preliminary spring practice before joining the team in the South.

OVER 700 NAMES ARE NOMINATED

LEXINGTON, Ky., March 16.—The sixth renewal of the Kentucky Fairly National Convention was held here today. More than 700 names have been nominated for the two and three-year terms of the National Executive Committee.

TUFTS' CANDIDATES IN THE BASEBALL CAGE AT MEDFORD HILLSIDE

These are reproductions made from photographs by the BOSTON AMERICAN's camera expert, Captain Tenney of the Boston Nationals, who has been coaching the candidates all Winter, is shown in the centre of the group. "Fred" predicts a brilliant season on the diamond for the Tufts nine!

SMALL TALK FOR BASEBALL FANS

The Boston Nationals will meet the first American League team when they clash with the Detroit at Charleston on March 21.

"Jimmy" Callahan may this season play first base for the Chicago White Sox.

Although these delightful summer days are looking up, the practice sessions of the Nationals are not yet over. The team is now practicing at the South End Grounds.

Billie Klen, who is this year a member of the National League of University, will have the unique record of umpiring in four continents in four seasons.

Eddie Phelps does not think that the injury he received last year will interfere with his playing this season.

Manager E. H. Hanlon is saying some unkind things about the Detroit team.

Corbin of the Phillies, appeared on the field at Augusta with several days' growth of beard on his face and was presented with an explanation that he had the "split ends" of a new haircut.

Notes of the Harness Horses.

When the harness horse season opens, and will be for the last time coming season.

John O'Leary, the champion driver of Boston, will drive a team of four horses in the harness race at the New York City track.

DR. LOUGEST

Columbus, Ohio, May 20, 1903.
Six years ago I had a severe attack of Inflammatory Rheumatism. I was laid in bed for six months, and the doctors I had did me no good. They prescribed everything they knew of, but nothing they prescribed seemed to help me. Finally I began the use of S. S. S. My knee and elbow joints were swollen terribly, and at one time my arm was so swollen and painful that I could not close them when opened. It was so bad that I could not move my arm or foot. I was getting discouraged.
